this title first published in 1975 contains two complimentary studies by paul q hirst the first based on claude bernard's theory of scientific knowledge and the second concerning emile durkheim's attempt to provide a philosophical foundation for a scientific sociology in the rules of sociological method the author's primary concern is to answer the question is durkheim's theory of knowledge logically consistent and philosophically viable his principal conclusion is that the epistemology developed in the rules is an impossible one and that its inherent contradictions are proof that sociology as it is commonly understood can never be a scientific discipline this four volume set is dedicated to the work of emile durkheim one of the most important and prolific sociologists in the field who is commonly cited as a founding father of modern social science with volumes published between 1975 and 1991 this collection brings together a range of modern critical responses to durkheim s work across a broad range of topics including epistemology modernism and post modernism theories of social order and the rise and development of modern society the authors in the collection also draw important comparisons between durkheim and other seminal sociologists including max weber and claude bernard for institutional purchases for e book sets please contact online sales tandf co uk customers in the uk europe and rest of world in sweet reason susan wells presents a rhetorical model for understanding the diverse discourses of modernity wells describes modernity as a system of texts which we are only now learning to read in order to comprehend how these texts organize our world she argues we must grasp how reason and desire interact to create meaning to this end wells offers a rhetoric based on an understanding of meaning as intersubjectivity created through the work of language wells elaborates this rhetoric of intersubjectivity by drawing on both jürgen habermas s concept of communicative rationality and on jacques lacan s theory of desire affirming the significance of reason and desire for rhetorical studies from scientific articles to classroom altercations contemporary government hearings to mantaigne s essays wells organizes several using rhetoric as an art and she shows how rhetoric operates in practice susan wells is associate professor of english at temple university this collection includes key texts from one of france s most famous philosophers which intervene in the debate between the humanist and the structuralists

a critique of the conventional wisdom in this study arguments are put forward for the thesis that biblical exegesis of the old testament prophetic literature is not a simple matter of interpreting texts but is also a process in which logical models or possible worlds are constructed to accommodate the validity of particular interpretations the lack of a model theoretical orientation to old testament methodological approaches has led to a situation in which the criticism of particular theories rarely addresses the real points of disagreement between scholars one theory is simply set against another even though the theories would be more effectively evaluated by discussing the validity and relevance of the different models in which they are framed there are various plausible and relevant models available for the interpretation of old testament texts in order to compare these different models a metalogical system charles sanders peirce s semiotics has been used throughout this study many important methodological issues are discussed in this study a
